Scottish Episcopal Institute launches 'Piskie Podcasts'

Hosted by the Scottish Episcopal Institute's Principal, Prof Michael Hull, 'Piskie Podcasts' have been launched that seek to feature perspectives on issues from across the Scottish Episcopal Church.

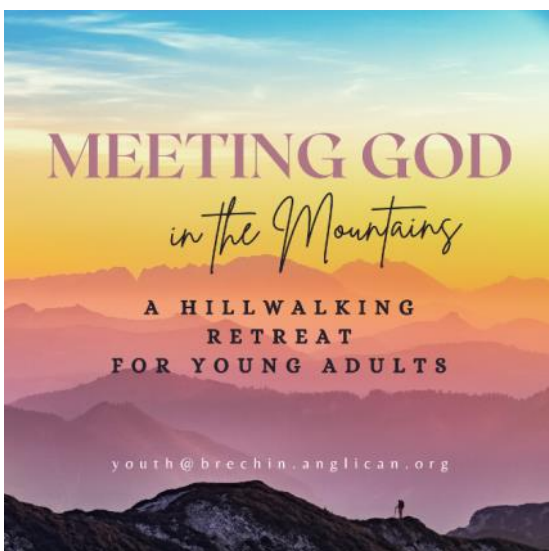

The inaugural Piskie Podcast offers four perspectives on assisted suicide, particularly the Assisted Dying for Terminally Ill Adults (Scotland) Bill. This Bill is one of the many proposals in the United Kingdom that aims to change current law around assisting a suicide. The question each of the four addresses is simply this: 'Is the Bill consistent with Christian ethics?' The Scottish Episcopal Institute offers their perspectives for deliberation about the Bill.

Full details of the speakers from a range of church, social and medical backgrounds, can be found here: <https://sei.scot/news/piskie-podcasts/>

So, is the Assisted Dying for Terminally Ill Adults (Scotland) Bill consistent with Christian ethics? Four Scottish Episcopalians weigh in, the first two opining that is, and the second two opining that it is not. Each talk is about 15 minutes, and the podcast in its entirety about an hour. It can be found here.

Brechin Diocese Young Adult Hillwalking Retreat—Seeking expressions of interest

Plans are afoot for a guided hillwalking retreat next summer for young adults (18-25ish) in Brechin Diocese, to be led by Claire Benton-Evans, Children & Youth Officer and trainee Mountain Leader, and Dr Richard Tiplady, qualified Mountain Leader and author of 'Following Jesus in the Great Outdoors'. Please share this offer widely! Here's the plan so far:

- Escape the daily grind and explore your faith with other young Christians (18-25ish) in the wild beauty of the Angus hills
- Climb Scotland's most easterly Munro, Mount Keen
- Share a short night hike experience under the dark skies of an Angus glen
- Stay in a comfy yet remote Retreat House (St Drostan's Lodge)

The Welcome Audit: Trailblazers in Brechin Diocese wanted to try new Children's Engagement resource!

The Welcome Audit is a brand new resource launched at Synod by the Children & Youth Officer. It is designed to help churches with no children renew the welcome that they offer. Could your church be a pilot project? During the Advent season of preparation, why not reflect on a Welcome Audit for next year? Get in touch with Claire who will be happy to support you on your church's journey from first idea through to successful Welcome Audit and beyond. Contact youth@brechin.anglican.org and find the Welcome Audit here: <https://www.thedioceseofbrechin.org/groups/youth-group/>

SEC-National Churches Trust Webinar: National Churches Trust Grants & Cherish Scotland:28 November, 13:00-14:00

Jon Hodges, Cherish Project Manager, will join us to provide SEC churches with an overview of grants available through the National Churches Trust, including through Cherish, a project funded by The National Lottery Heritage Fund, which specifically supports churches in Scotland. Jon will also discuss the wider support network available through the Trust. For more information regarding National Churches Trust grants, visit this link.

Net Zero: Energy Footprint Tool completion Request - Please Complete by 30 November.

A request from Prof Peter Sharp, Diocesan Net Zero Representative: Recently vestry treasurers will have received an email from the Net Zero Team asking them to input data into the Energy Footprint Tool. Possibly because no deadline for responses was given, relatively few charges in Brechin have responded so far. It is very simple to complete; at the least you simply have to give details from your charge's annual energy bill(s) for 2023. Its importance is that it provides you with your carbon footprint for that year and so you will be able to see how, in future years, measures that you have put in place have reduced your carbon emissions.

A deadline to complete the Tool has been set for 30 November. Please contact the office or Peter if you are unsure of how to do this or what you need to do.
